Dr. Falconer,

University of Toronto,

Toronto.

Dear Dr. Falconer,

You may remember that in the moment's interview that I had with you recently, in Toronto, I mentioned several documents that had been brought to my attention. I enclose a diagram given by Professor Henderson of Chicago University, to those of us who were present recently at the Conference at Garden City. Professor Henderson says that for some time the University of Chicago has been seeking to correlate with the various subjects that of and to group them in such a way that they may form suitable courses for Social Workers.

This as I understand it, is an interim report and I thought that it might be of interest to you, at this stage in the development of your policy. Let me also call your attention to a little booklet entitled 'Salaried Positions For Men In Social Work'. This is issued by the Intercollegiate Bureau of Occupations, 38 West 32nd St. New York, and contains a rather remarkable survey of the fields now open to professionally trained Social Workers. My two months field work in the East has convinced me that there will be a num-

J. S. Woodsworth, Esq.,

Room 10,

Industrial Bureau, Winnipeg.

Dear Mr. Woodsworth:

Many thanks for the letter and enclosed diagram from Professor Henderson of Chicago. I will endeavour to take time very soon to study it. We are getting our scheme under way, and we hope to have something ready to offer for the opening of next session.

Many thanks also for calling my attention to the booklet entitled "Salaried Position for Men in Social Work".

I shall always be glad to hear from you.

Yours sincerely,

President.
